The people of Beattyville were much alarmed Tuesday evening when the L. & A. was returning from the Junction, by the continuous blowing of the whistle.

At first the alarm was taken as though the train had left the track, but later it became known that the Hon. J. K. Roberts was away from town and was returning on the train with his wife.

Mr. Roberts had gone to Winchester and joined hands with Mrs. Lula Lut-zie, one of Maysville's most charming young ladies. They were met at the train by a large crowd of friends and were given a royal welcome. They retired to the Ninaweb Hotel where they had many callers during the early part of the night. Mr. Roberts has just been nominated by the Democrats of the 23rd Judicial District for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney, and he seems to be wise in not undertaking the race alone. Our best regards is a happy life for the new couple.

Wm. Eversole has erected a shanty boat on the river, preparatory to leaving these "diggins" soon as he can get water sufficient, and has moved his family into it. It lays in the pool at the mouth of Meadow Creek.

Monday afternoon was mostly taken up by public speaking. Hon. J. L. McCoy made an excellent speech in defense of Col. Belknap and the Republican State Ticket. His speech was well received by the 500 voters who came out to hear him. He was followed by John D. White, who, as usual, found fault with every party in existence, except a party who favors Women Suffrage, abolishing of the Internal Revenue System, surrendering up the Philippine Islands, etc. He announced himself a candidate for Congress to fill out the unexpired term of the late Boring, de'd, and "roasted" Colson, McCoy and others for their action towards him in the Colson-White campaign in 1898, and charges that the seating of Boring over him was a "sell out and compromise" between the Republicans and Democratic Congressional Committees in Congress.

On Monday an order was made transferring Alonzo Cawood and the Allens back from the Richmond jail, where they were lodged for safe keeping.

On their arrival here they were at once brought before his Honor and their cases called, when both sides announced ready for trial. Cawood, for murder of Rose, went to trial Wednesday, and the Allen cases on Friday, the 25th.

In the Allen cases a special elisor was sent to Clay county to summon a jury to try them. These cases are both considered bad cases of murder and the feeling runs high, especially in the neighborhood in which it occurred. A guard has been placed around the jail to protect the prisoners and able counsel has been employed by their friends, both to defend them and also to aid the Commonwealth in their prosecution.

YALLER BRITCHES.

A Remarkable Record.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over thirty years, during which time many million bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes, yet during all this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturers in which it failed to affect a cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by DAY BROS. Co.
